5TH DISTRICT COMMUNITY PROSECUTION UPDATE

The U.S. Attorney's Office Community Prosecution staff wishes to take this opportunity to thank Fifth District residents for attending our open house reception held on July 1st at the Fifth District Police Station. This event provided an excellent opportunity for residents to meet with U.S. Attorney's Office staff, including, the Fifth District Chief Jennifer Anderson, Community Prosecutor Anita LaRue, and Community Outreach Specialist John D. Davis. We commend the community members for partnering with MPDC and the U.S. Attorney's Office to effectively address quality of life and public safety issues in the Fifth District and look forward to a continued relationship. It was an enjoyable evening and we thank those that stopped by to visit.

THE COURT REPORT

District man pleads guilty to making false bomb threats (Case No. 04-0269)

FACTS: Jason Lewis Foster, 26, of the 400 block of Oklahoma Avenue, N.E., pled guilty on August 10, 2004 before United States District Judge Paul L. Friedman to one count of making threats to kill and injure others by means of an explosive for phoning in false bomb threats on December 12, 2003 and February 20, 2004. The defendant will be sentenced on November 5, 2004, at which time he faces a maximum of ten years in prison.

According to the government's evidence, on December 12, 2003, an unidentified male caller made twelve (12) phone calls to the Metropolitan Police Department, stating that he had placed three bombs in the area of the 400 block of Oklahoma Avenue, N.E. These threats triggered a massive response from local and federal authorities, evacuating homes and expending vital law enforcement resources. The Metropolitan Police Department responded to the threats and located a device in a parking lot adjacent to the 400 block of Oklahoma Avenue, N.E., which was determined to be non-lethal by members of the Explosive Ordinance Division, but was designed to give the appearance of an actual explosive device.

On February 20, 2004, at 5:15 a.m., an unidentified male called the Metropolitan Police Department Communications Division and stated that he thought there was a bomb located in a vehicle parked in the 400 block of Oklahoma Avenue, N.E. An unidentified male called again at 5:16 a.m. and said that there was a bomb in the same location that would explode at 3:00 p.m. Telephone records revealed that the threats were made from a phone number at the defendant's residence.

Three similar bomb threats regarding an explosive device located in the 400 block of Oklahoma Avenue, N.E., were made on February 20, 2004, to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, the Metropolitan Police Department's Special Operations Division, and the Metropolitan Police Department's Fifth Police District. The Metropolitan Police Department responded to the 400 block of Oklahoma Avenue, N.E., and found no signs of explosive materials.

After members of the FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force executed a federal search warrant at the defendant's residence, Jason Lewis Foster was identified as the person who made the call on February 20, 2004. The defendant later arrived at the residence, was placed under arrest, and subsequently admitted that he had made the false bomb threats on December 12, 2003, and February 20, 2004.

In announcing the guilty plea, United States Attorney Wainstein and Assistant Director in Charge Mason praised the work of FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force members Seth Holmes, Thomas O'Connor, and Gerhard Vienna, and Assistant United States Attorney Brenda Johnson, who prosecuted the case.

District man sentenced to 107 years in prison in double homicide case (Case No. F-02508-01; PSA 502)

FACTS: Dominic Jones, 22, formerly of the 2600 block of Birney Place, S.E., Washington, D.C., was sentenced on August 10, 2004 to 107 years in prison by D.C. Superior Court Judge Judith E. Retchin for the brutal murders of Kevin Seamone and Roy Scarborough on January 27, 2001. A jury convicted Jones on May 5, 2004, of two counts of second degree murder while armed, two counts of possession of a firearm during the commission of a crime of violence, and other related weapons offenses. In imposing sentence, Judge Retchin followed the government's recommendation and sentenced Jones to the maximum available prison term for each count of conviction, ordering that each count run consecutive to each other. The Court noted that Jones' depravity and brutality rendered this case one of the most senseless acts of violence she had seen in all of her years on the bench.

The government's evidence at trial showed that in the early morning hours of January 27, 2001, police responded to the rear of 1295 Brentwood Road (PSA 502) and discovered Roy Scarborough and Kevin Seamone. Both men had been shot multiple times. Seamone was pronounced dead on the scene and Scarborough was pronounced dead later that night. It was a bitterly cold night so no one was outside at the time of the murders. The case remained unsolved for several months.

On April 18, 2001, an off-duty officer observed Dominic Jones shooting at another individual in the same area as the January 27th murders. The officer gave chase, and when Jones was apprehended he had a .40 Smith and Wesson which police matched to the shell casings found on the earlier murder scene. Jones then confessed to the murders. He told investigators that on the evening of the murders, his friend Gary Freeman came around the neighborhood and told him that "Mousie" had shot at him. Jones went with Freeman to retaliate against Mousie. They could not find Mousie but ran into Mousie's cousin, Scarborough, and his friend, Seamone. Jones told police he shot Seamone first and then Scarborough. He shot Seamone a total of six times and Scarborough a total of seven times. Jones fired so many times that he ran out of ammunition and had to use Gary Freeman's gun to make sure Scarborough was in fact dead. At trial, Jones claimed that he falsely confessed to protect the real murderer - his identical twin brother.

In announcing today's sentence, U.S. Attorney Wainstein commended the bravery of Sergeant Tracey Kennie, the off-duty officer who saw Jones shooting and gave chase resulting in his capture. He also commended the outstanding work of homicide detectives Jeffrey Owens and Michael Irving who investigated the case and who obtained the confession from Jones. The U.S. Attorney also commended the work of the many other officers who assisted in the successful prosecution of the case such as Detectives Mitch Credle, Dwayne Corbett, Darryl Richmond, Officers Darryl Young, James Rogers, Choumanny Vorachek, Stacey Davis, Mobile Crime Officers Cynthia Brown, David Murray, Kevin Jeter, Ridley Durham, Rodney Langford, Firearms Examiners Michael Mulderig and Luciano Morales, and Fingerprint Specialist Diane Downing. Finally, Mr. Wainstein praised the work of Assistant United States Attorney Deborah Sines who indicted the case, and Jennifer Anderson and Matthew Cohen who prosecuted the case at trial.
